

CONNECTING IN CANNABIS

FROM COP TO CANNABIS CONSULTANT. THE MIKE REGO STORY

MIKE REGO

Mike Rego doesn't have your traditional background, nor is he your "normal" guy.

Prior to getting into the cannabis space Mike was a decorated man of the shield. He spent almost 20 years ascending through the ranks of the Newport Police, working in various departments such as crisis negotiation, the juvenile division, criminal investigations and eventually Narcotics.

Mike has advised on cultivation sites, worked with grow facilities, been involved in policy and cannabis applications, as well as, being a keynote speaker.

Mike is a consummate student. He received his master's in Administrative Justice from Salve Regina University, but continues to read and better himself through various management and personal development. When Mike's not spending time with his two sons he can be found either playing tennis or tearing up the drums on the local Providence night scene.
